In this concert, you can see The Cure. This rock band is one the most respected groups in the U.K. Next from August 11th to 12th, one of the biggest rock festivals is coming: Summer Sonic! And you can see The Black Eyed Peas in this event. Their latest single Monkey Business has become a smash hit all over the world. Finally, you can experience the biggest J-pop festival at Rock in Japan Fes. Some of today's hottest artists will get together for this event such as Asian Kang-Fu Generation, Bump of Chicken, and Rip Slyme. Come on, watch my show to find out all the details you need to enjoy these three monster music events.
